Despite provincial cuts Board balances budget

by Ariel White

The Trillium Lakelands Districts School Board approved a balanced operating budget for the coming year at its regular board meeting last week despite almost four million dollars less than the projected funding allocation from the Ministry of Education and Training.

Retiring Superintendent Al Ingram presented the budget to the board at the Lindsay Education Centre last Tuesday. The budget includes a total grant allocation of $136,794,710 which is $3,671,955 less than the projected amount from the ministry. "This is a balanced budget as required by the province," said Ingram. He also noted that 64 per cent of the budget would be assigned to classroom spending, two per cent above the provincial requirement. The provincial definition of classroom spending, according to Ingram does not include administrators, support staff such as school secretaries, custodians or the contentious issue of teacher preparation time.

The area of technology is of concern to Ingram as well. He feels that the province did not allocate acceptable support for computers in class-

Policing costs could jump $250,000

by Jerry Grozelle

Staff Sergeant Andy Millar, along with OPP superintendents Chris Wyatt and Steve Ostrowski appeared before Haliburton County council Wednesday, September 23 to explain a proposed realignment of services that would see Haliburton County's policing costs jump by $250,000. Millar explained that the County of Victoria has asked the OPP to provide contract costing for the county, with the exception of Lindsay (and Ops Township, which has opted to buy its police services from the Lindsay Police Force). A five-year contract has been signed between Lindsay and Ops Township.

The Times contacted Victoria

County Warden John Macklem, who said he was surprised when the announcement was made.

"We got back-doored," he said. "We were trying to negotiate a deal for the entire county. It's tough for us to know what our role is. There could be an interesting ripple effect."

Local police forces are only allowed by legislation to provide services to contiguous municipalities (those which border their jurisdiction). In order for the Lindsay force to provide police services to any other municipality outside the Town of Lindsay, it had to secure a contract with Ops, since Ops Township completely surrounds Lindsay. Ops was in an enviable position in that negotiation process.

Under the OPP proposal, police services between Victoria and Haliburton would become separated. The Lindsay and Coboconk offices would amalgamate, with the two being renamed Victoria Detachment. Administration for the entire county, excluding Lindsay and Ops, would be handled from the OPP office in Lindsay. The Lindsay and Coboconk offices would both remain as operational centres, with Coboconk covering the northern part of the county.

Victoria County would benefit from a lower cost of administration, with one detachment commander reporting to the governing body; a greater inte-

John Eakins dies: former MPP

John Eakins' legacy: See editorial, on page 6

Former Victoria-Haliburton MPP and Lindsay municipal politician, John Eakins, has died. The Lindsay native passed away September 16 in Hamilton, where he had moved recently to be with his son and to be closer to treatments for cancer. He was in his mid seventies.

John Eakins' involvement with politics began in the early 1960s. While working as a hair dresser he was appointed to the Lindsay Planning Board where he served from 1960 to 1963. He was a member of city council from 1963 to 1966 and mayor for three terms, twice acclaimed, between 1966 to 1971.

His foray into provincial politics was thwarted twice before he was elected in 1975. He continued to hold the Victoria-Haliburton seat for 15 years until his retirement in 1990.

The 1985 election saw his Liberal Party gain a majority and form the provincial government. Mr.

Eakins was appointed Minister of Tourism and Recreation. He saw the important economic value of tourism to the province and worked hard to promote it to the public and among his Cabinet colleagues. He was also responsible for the Ontario Lottery Corporation, which, at the time, was providing funds for community projects throughout the province.

In 1987 Eakins was appointed Minister of Municipal Affairs. His background as a municipal politician was of great assistance in this portfolio. As the minister, Mr. Eakins identified the need for consolidation of municipal jurisdictions, a process which was slow to start, but continues to evolve today.

John Eakins was predeceased by his wife Iris, 14 years ago. He is survived by his daughters Jan and Karen and son Barry and their families. The Funeral Service was held at Queen Street United Church in Lindsay, September 21. Memorial donations can be made to Ross Memorial Hospital or the Children's Wish Foundation.

John Eakins, former Victoria-Haliburton MPP and provincial Cabinet Minister.

Duck Alert!

The Minden Lions club is searching for three missing ducks.

Numbers 158, 304 and 373 from the club's rubber ducky race escaped on labour Day weekend and haven't been seen since.

The yellow plastic ducks either became caught in the shoreline weeds or avoided the duck catchers at the finish line and floated down the river. (For the moment the club is discounting the rumour that the three joined a flight of migrating mergansers heading south. Although, if the trio is not found soon, the search area may be widened to include Chesapeake Bay.)

Anyone with details concerning their whereabouts is asked to call 286-2511 or, if you have 158, 304 or 373, they can be dropped off at Jug City in Minden.

Three yellow ducks were on the job during the race. They crossed the finish line first and as a result their "owners" scooped some cool cash. First was Kelly Moore of Minden who won $500; second Ian McGowan of Scarborough who won $200 and third Patricia Beck, also of Scarborough who won $100.

Saving a piece of Highlands history

by Jerry Grozelle

The future of St. Stephen's Anglican Church on Buckslide Road will be decided soon. The church hasn't been used for services for several years, but a group of area residents, who call themselves The Friends of St. Stephen's, would like to see the 93 year-old building preserved as a historical structure, even if it is never again used for services.

The group has organized a fact-finding town hall type meeting for Tuesday, September 29. It will be held at the Stanhope Firefighters Hall on North Shore Road at 7 p.m. This meeting is the first step in the process to determine if there is enough interest to warrant pursuing the project further.

Parishioners decided to close the church to services because attendance dwindled to the point where it was no longer viable to keep the church open. Later, the building was inspected, along with the other four churches in the diocese, and it was declared unsafe and closed to the public.

Bryan Kernohan Engineering has since done a preliminary inspection and determined that it would cost about $56,000 to make the structure safe and useable.

Carol Moffatt, a member of the Friends of St. Stephen's, said the meeting will determine the fate of the church.

"If nobody shows up, we'll just have to abandon the project and the church will eventually fall in," she said.

The last time the church was used was in 1993, for the funeral of Mary Oliver who died at the age of 100. The last church service was held in 1990.

"We're working really hard to preserve this building," said Barb Trocewicz, a member of the Friends of St. Stephen's. She noted that an article appeared in this paper in June of 1997 explaining the situation with St. Stephens. The article generated five letters, and three of the letter writers are now members of The Friends of St. Stephen's.

St. Stephen's Anglican Church, on Buckslide Road in Stanhope Township, may not see its one hundredth anniversary in seven year's time unless a group of area citizens can find support for saving the structure.

Trocewicz said the committee is trying to give the community a chance to respond.

"Hopefully a decision will come of the meeting," she said. "There is a possibility that the building will have to be taken down stone by stone. That would be very sad for the community and the county.

Tomorrow's meeting will either generate enough interest to continue with plans to preserve St. Stephen's or it will mean the closing of another chapter in Haliburton's history. The community will decide which course is taken.

Construction starts this week

Bruce Stienburg was introduced to members of the Haliburton Highlands Health Services Board at a meeting in Minden Thursday. The two projects are being constructed by Bradscot (MCL) Ltd. of Markham.

Executive Director Foster Loucks noted that over the next two years, Stienburg would become a familiar face around Haliburton County as he will be making regular trips between the Haliburton site and the construction headquarters at the Minden Hyland Crest site.

Stienburg stated that excavation at the Haliburton hospital site is scheduled to begin by September 30. It is planned that the new ambulance bays will be excavated first at the Haliburton site and the top soil will be stripped at the Minden site. The work has been delayed in Minden due to a complication in construction of the new entrance off Deep Bay Road. Stienburg stated that once the initial work is started, residents will be able to follow the projects' progress. "By this time next year, you will definitely know we are here," he said.

Stienburg stated to the board members that because he is familiar with the area, he is also aware of the importance of these projects. "I've been up here for 20 years, so I know how long you've been waiting for this," he said.

Foster Loucks also mentioned the possibility of economic spin-offs for the county, as there may be a possibility of employment with the construction. Bruce Stienburg cautioned that employment would be limited by the fact that Bradscot was a unionized company and could only hire union members. "There are a number of people in the area that are in the unions. Any additional help we need we will be getting from the local area," said Stienburg. "The intention is to give as much work here as possible. It doesn't pay to bring people here from Toronto."

Board members have tentatively scheduled a tour of the two building sites for as early as next week, to gain a better sense of the layout of the two facilities. This will enable them to respond to questions residents may have concerning the construction.

Time to roll up your sleeves

The Haliburton Legion will be hosting a blood drive on Tuesday September 28 from 1:00 to 7:00 p.m. The clinic will be open to HHHS students only, between 12:00 and 1:00 p.m. One donation can be used for as many as four different people, so please plan to attend. Donors are reminded to bring along valid identification and don't be afraid to bring along a friend.

RUN FOR THE CURE: The Minden and Haliburton branches of the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce have entered teams in Run for the Cure, a program aimed at finding a cure for breast cancer. The event, which is sponsored by the CIBC, will take place Sunday, October 4. The local teams will be going to Peterborough to participate. The Minden team, which calls itself 'We Care', includes (left to right) Ann Knight, holding Jazzmine, Kim Lewis, holding Cinderella, Jane Myers and Wendy Bartlett. The fifth member of the Minden team, Elsie Stamp, was unavailable for the photo. The two dogs, along with a third named Cricket, are team mascots. They will accompany the team on the five-kilometre run/walk. The Haliburton team includes Eileen Simmons, Liz Nicholson, Wanda Evans, Dawn Dennis and Betty Glendenning. Board struggles with cuts to balance budget rooms. "This is another area with inadequate provincial funding," said Ingram. He noted that the board may want to address its concerns to the Ministry of Education and Training.

In this area the Trillium Lakelands board has allocated $228,000 less than the provincial average.

The transportation portion of the operating budget may be a potential area of concern for the board. According to a press release issued by the school board, the provincial allocation for transportation is $895,000 lower than previously projected. According to Superintendent Jim Bradley the total costs of busing across the board is approximately $60,000 per day. The funding gap could be made up by cutting buses for seven days.

This discrepancy will be compensated in part by savings in the administration portion of the budget of $194,178. Also the board anticipates an impending provincial special assistance grant of $395,000. According to Ingram, this shortfall will have to be reconciled through a variety of options. He felt it could be addressed through a reduction in service days or through a review of walking distances for students. "This transportation issue needs to be looked at," said Ingram. "This budget reflects a significant cut to operations."

Parents hope to influence federal and provincial law makers

Purple ribbons will be the accessory of choice this Sunday as a group of Minden parents hosts an open forum to gather support for a sexual offender registry. The parents, John and Jane Cooper, Jennifer and Curtis Ketner, Mike Elder and Brenda and Jeff Manser have called the meeting at Archie Stouffer Elementary School. The group, known as Communities Protecting Children, has chosen a loop of purple ribbon to represent its cause.

The meeting includes a number of speakers who will address various aspects of protecting the community from sexual offenders who have been released from prison.

The concern surfaced recently when it was realized that a former Minden resident, who was being held on a number of sexual offenses concerning children, will be released in November from Warkworth Prison near Kingston. From concern about this individual in particular, the group has expanded its scope to include influencing federal and provincial lawmakers.

The group feels there is a need for community education on how parents can protect their children from potential predators. It also feels that the introduction of a registry would help alert communities when a known offender moves into the area. It would be mandatory for an offender to register. Examples of such registries in the United States include such information as the offender's name, address, photo, list of convictions and other information which may be of value to parents.

The group hopes this meeting will help galvanize support across the country for establishing the registry and influencing the federal government to introduce the needed legislation.

Speaking at the meeting will be Provincial Abuse Issue Co-ordinator, OPP Sergeant Leslie Rice, MP John O'Reilly, Reform Party representative Pat Dunn, Trillium Lakelands District School Board chair Cheryl Murdoch and Tammy Crawford from Oshawa. Ms. Crawford was viciously assaulted by a individual who was on day release from the nearby Whitby Psychiatric Hospital. According to her, the doctors at the facility were aware of the individual's potential for re-offending, before he was released.

The meeting is open to everyone and will begin at 1:30 p.m. Those interested in getting a purple ribbon to wear before the meeting can pick one up Minden Rent-All, on Main Street.

Service expands

The Red Cross is seeking to expand its health care equipment loan service in Haliburton, Peterborough and Northumberland areas.

To assist in this effort it is seeking donations of home health equipment in good working order which can then make available to patients throughout the coverage area. At the moment the service has only been available from locations in Peterborough, Millbrook and Port Hope, but the agency hopes to be able to expand it to include a rural delivery service in Haliburton and other areas.

This project is being carried out in co-operation with the Minden Legion and with the assistance of a donation from the Minden Lions Club. Donations can be dropped off at the Red Cross office at 565 Water Street in Peterborough or by calling 705-745-8222.

Remembering John Eakins

John Eakins put a gentle face on the often rough and tumble world of politics. The former Lindsay civic politician and Victoria-Haliburton MPP died September 16.

His style of politics is rarely seen today although there are some who attempt to emulate it. John's approach was to deal with the issues, weigh them carefully, and then make a decision based on the facts. He would never allow personalities to enter into the decision-making process. When a decision was made, John would endeavour to ensure that those on the other side of the issue understood the reasoning behind it and attempt to bring them on side.

John's approach to politics was admired by his colleagues in the Ontario Legislature. 'A real gentleman' was a term most often used when other MPPs were asked to comment on the Victoria-Haliburton representative. It was a measure of the man that even after being appointed to Cabinet posts, especially the potentially volatile Ministry of Municipal Affairs, whenever the opposition went on the attack, they concentrated on the issues rather than the minister as an individual.

His constituents recognized the genuine aspect of his character. He was an approachable, easy-going and a concerned representative of the people in the riding, who earned and retained their loyalty.

While Lindsay was his home, John Eakins had a vision that saw beyond central Ontario or the province. He nurtured the twinning of Lindsay with the Japanese city of Nayaro, encouraging exchanges among a variety of groups, helping to build bridges of international understanding. Even after leaving politics he continued to urge the retention of the ties between the two cities.

Most practitioners of the art would probably consider John's approach to politics to be outside the norm today. It is a credit to his character that he was able to approach his work with fair-mindedness and maintain it throughout his terms. It is for this the former politician will be fondly remembered.

Caveat emptor

From time to time we hear reports of individuals who have been persuaded to sign sales agreements for appliances they do not need or want, or contracts with terms that they did not understand. While it is unfair to suggest that all door-to-door sales people misrepresent their product or sales terms (in fact, The Times occasionally uses a professional sales team to carry out a subscription drive), it seems that some questionable business practices start with a sales pitch at the prospect's front door.

One Haliburton County resident feels she had such an experience recently and she has asked us to share it with our readers to alert them to the potential problems that could arise. We have not identified the author nor the company with which she is dealing.

An open letter to the citizens of Haliburton County:

Beware of someone who phones you in the middle of the afternoon and tells you you have won a prize of certificates from the Minden merchants.

"What's the catch?" you ask. "No catch," she says, but a condition of the win is that you let a representative come to demonstrate a vacuum cleaner.

Foolishly you agree, and in a flash the rep is at your door. No mention is made of the prize you've won, he just starts in on his spiel about what a fabulous machine this is. It will even pick dirt up when the bag is full. However, later you learn that the machine doesn't work with a full bag, it shuts off.

It's all Canadian, except for the power head which is made in Germany. He demonstrates how it picks up dirt and then he offers you a huge "bonus" - carpet cleaning for years. He makes a phone call and gets someone to lower the price and gets you to promise not to tell anyone. You are hooked, so you foolishly buy.

He takes the money, asks for a few mementoes from your home, plus your old vacuum. He hands you the warranty and again, foolishly you don't take time to read it. It's getting past supper time and you just want to get him out.

So the next day you read the warranty and discover the fabulous "bonus" of carpet cleaning is only the loan of equipment to do the job yourself. Not what he said in his offer. So you phone the person who offers the service, only to be told he doesn't and has never provided the service for this company. (The writer has since learned that the equipment is now available in the area.)

Now you are angry, so you phone everybody you can think of to see what to you can do to get your money back from these people who have lied to you.

You write letters, you phone, you call MP's both provincial and federal and no one contacts you. I've spoken with a man who called himself the president of the company and he says I won't get my money back unless I sue, so that is my next move.

I could go on and on about these people but I will just reiterate — take note — beware of vacuum cleaner salesmen bearing (non) gifts, they are wolves in sheep's clothing.

Rural job strategy gets $35 million boost over four years

Recently, Premier Harris and Agriculture, Food and Rural Affairs Minister, Noble Villeneuve announced $35 million over four years for Rural Youth Job Strategy.

This program is an integral part of Youth Opportunities Ontario, a government-wide initiative aimed at enhancing training and employment opportunities for youth in the province.

This is good news for the youth of Victoria-Haliburton. Rural students need help finding jobs and we are determined to help them by working in partnership with rural business people and community leaders to create a climate in which our rural youth can thrive.

The strategy is intended to encourage local businesses and organizations to enter into partnership to provide jobs or training for rural young people between the ages of 15 and 29. It has been designed to enhance the employable skills of rural youth and create a climate for job creation and opportunities for business in rural Ontario.

By breaking down barriers to employment and building up the skills and opportunities of rural young people now, their communities will grow stronger, more jobs will be created and they will enjoy greater prosperity for generations to come.

The program will include rural internships which are designed to provide practical work experience at entry-level positions. These in turn, will provide rural business sectors, municipalities and community organizations with specifically trained staff to meet their business needs.

In addition, it will include sector/community based projects to address locally or regionally identified barriers to employment and job creation. Technology based employment opportunities, mentorships, rural job fairs and transportation assistance to cover the cost of travel to job placements that are not served by existing school bus routes for students in co-operative education, are among the benefits of the strategy.

Applications and information are available at the Agriculture, Food and Rural Affairs field offices or by calling 1-888-588-4111.

A little taste of home on the net

Editor:

I have been living and working far from home for close to three years now and I must thank you and your superb staff for helping me stay current on a most important part of myself - my home.

It is very important to keep a perspective on the rest of your life, and knowing where you came from will help you get where you want to be. I came from Minden. Now in the hustle and craziness of Big-City America, all I have to do is log on to your website and I am transported to a calmer place. A place where school spirit doesn't mean gang fights, an evening walk is possible, and the paper reports happy news more often than not.

I enjoy my life, my work, and where I live. And yet, every now and then, it is really nice to be able to come home, even if it is only through your words and my computer screen. I thank you, and keep up the good work.

Houston, Texas

The house out the back

*O, chaste Erato, hear my plaint
I would sing the joys of yon house so quaint*

Pray guide the hand of thy unworthy scribe, O

Blessed Muse — I refer to the Kybo

Yep....Kybo. That's what we called it when I was a kid — the kybo. I've heard that the name was an anagram for Keep Your Bowels Open, but I can't confirm that. I do know that the kybo was known by other names: Backhouse, Outhouse, Boghouse and Wee House — to name a handful.

Domestic outhouses have all but vanished from the North American landscape and I think that's a shame. It's difficult to describe them (let alone sing their praises) to kids at the tail end of the twentieth century. Kids who have grown up with shiny bathtubs and porcelain toilets, without ever having to think about hot and cold running water.

I once tried to explain to a college kid, the old Halloween prank of furtively moving outhouses farther down the path. He looked at me blankly for a moment, then said "But wouldn't moving them like that wreck the plumbing?"

The John. The Jakes. The Necessary.

The Comfort Station.

Great places to sit and think, those old outhouses. Stimulating. I remember sitting there one time gazing at the crescent moon carved in the door. Why a crescent moon, I wondered. Out of curiosity I looked it up. It turns out that the crescent moon is an ancient symbol for women and 'way back in the days when only a fraction of the population could read, such symbols were required to keep men from accidentally stumbling into the ladies privies. (The symbol for the mens outhouse, by the way, was a circular 'sun'. It disappeared about the time kybos went co-ed.)

The Dunny. The Closet. The Loo. The Head.

Plenty of evidence of pioneer cleverness in the construction of outhouses as well. That crescent moon was more than a mere design. It functioned as a pretty serviceable 'air freshener' in the days before air conditioning, and yet it was narrow enough to thwart unwanted animal intruders.

A lot of early outhouses were whitewashed. Why white? Think 'night'. In the days (and especially the nights) before street lights and flashlights, a white building was a lot easier to find in the dark.

The Small Room. The Reading

Room. The Throne.

I remember once wondering why most outhouse doors opened outward instead of inward. That made no sense at all to me. A door that opened inward could be held shut with your foot to prevent someone from interrupting your reverie. Why didn't the doors open inwards?

I asked an old Finlander about that very mystery back when I lived in the bush near Thunder Bay. He looked at me as if I'd asked him which end of a shotgun I should point at a partridge.

He explained that, while nocturnal animals such as skunks, porcupines and large, dangerous bears have extreme curiosity regarding the contents of outhouses, they aren't really swift when it comes to opening and closing doors. In other words, inward-opening doors would make it very easy for animals to get in, but mighty tricky to leave when their, um, curiosity had been satisfied.

The Honey Bucket. the Chapel of Ease. The Thunder Box.

And why such a long walk? Why, I wondered, did outhouses have to be so far from the house?

Depends on your point of view. And sense of smell. The best definition of a kybo I ever read was: "a little house behind a big house, about 100 yards away. In winter, it's 100 yards too far; in summer, it's 100 yards too close."

Volunteers and participants made it happen

Editor:

On behalf of the Minden Terry Fox Run Committee I'd like to offer my sincerest thanks to all those who participated in the run, which raised $6,000-plus for cancer research. More than 140 runners, walkers, bikers, in-line skaters and skateboarders took part in the event. In addition, and to the amazement of the folks at the Terry Fox Foundation, we had a total of 46 volunteers helping with the event. Your support is very much appreciated.

Several Minden and area businesses also assisted by providing products and services.

The Municipality of Anson, Hindon and Minden made part of the Community Centre available and staff members assisted throughout the day.

Thanks also to the Minden Amateur Radio Club for providing communications and to the Minden and Area Police Support Association for providing vital traffic control. The Minden detachment of the OPP assigned a couple of officers to patrol the race course, which was much appreciated. Gord Monk and Mike Legge patrolled on their motorcycles as well, helping to ensure the safety of the participants.

A special thanks to the members of the organizing committee, whose efforts made this event so successful.

Whenever a note of appreciation like this is written, there is the possibility that someone's vital contributions could inadvertently be omitted. If that is the case here, it certainly is unintentional. Everyone's participation is very much appreciated.

It is very heartening to see people from this area join together in support of such a worthy cause.

Senior curlers take to Blairhampton's golf links

by Gail Grainger

The Minden Seniors Curling Club Fall Golf Tournament was held on September 10, at the Blairhampton Golf Course. It was as if the day had been specially ordered, with blue skies, moderate temperatures and a slight breeze — all the ingredients that go into making a great day to golf.

John Thomas and Joanne MacDonald must have thought so, for they both won respectively for the longest drive on the fifth hole.

Bob McConnell and Irene Rahme each won for the closest to the hole and Bill Milford and his team of Bob McConnell and Florence Stanley won for the most honest team.

John Thomas's team of Merle Codlin, Walter Barnes and David Ross came in third. Dan Abel and his team of Angela O'Neill and Ebby Bishop placed second but the team of Don Drewell, John Warren and Christine McCartney won the Dave and Billie Shuyler Trophy for first place.

This year we had 83 golfers and thanks to the tremendous effort of Dave and Bonnie Fullan and Muriel Harrington there was only a delay of two minutes for the last team to tee off.

Later that afternoon 120 members came back to the curling club for a beautiful dinner, cooked, prepared and served by Doreen Spencley, Larralyn MacKay, Jean Robson, Jean Farrell and Laura Carnegie.

As in any event there are always the people behind the scenes who make things happen.

A special thank you to all of the crews that worked so hard so that the day ran so smoothly. Gayle and Bob McConnell, Helen Rice, Doreen Spencley, and Bonnie Fullan for setting the tables and organizing the dinner preparation. To Doug and Muriel McIntosh and John and Marie Lennard for cleaning up after dinner and to Carol and Bob Bullen, Bill and Betty Trapp and Phil and Jane Graham for kitchen cleanup. A special thanks to Todd Grainger, Dave MacKay and all of those shuckers for getting and cooking the corn and to Cat Wilson and Cheryl Murdoch for looking after the bar.

Verne Graham remembered

Verne Graham would be pleased. The former president of the Haliburton Highlands Field Naturalists, who lost his battle to cancer before seeing the completion of Snowdon Park, had his passion for nature commemorated with the dedication of a new observation platform at the park. The platform was dedicated during a special ceremony September 12.

About 80 people took part in the dedication ceremonies. Among the visiting dignitaries present for the event were MPP Chris Hodgson, Snowdon reeve Ross Rigney, Snowdon councillor Ron Buchanan, Snowdon clerk-treasurer Ernie Hills, manager of the Haliburton County Development Corporation Andy Campbell, and others. Verne's wife Marg and son Andrew were on hand to take part in the dedication.

Verne Graham was instrumental in negotiating with Snowdon Township to allow the Haliburton Highlands Field Naturalists to take over stewardship of the 110-acre park. He recognized the potential of the park for nature study, and together with a small committee, prepared a proposal which was presented to Snowdon council and approved. The original committee included Mike Collins and Byron Woodman.

After Verne's death, a trust fund was established for development of the park's facilities. Since Verne had often spoken of the need for a viewing platform, the Snowdon Committee decided it would be appropriate to build a platform and dedicate it to his memory.

"It has been a real community effort," said Irena Durling, a member of the current Snowdon Park Committee. She acted as master of ceremonies for the dedication.

During the dedication ceremony, Ross Rigney said Snowdon Park has the potential to become a smaller version of Wye Marsh. He urged those present for the ceremony to financially support the park's further development.

Al McPherson of Sir Sandford Fleming College in Haliburton and students from the Eco-Tourism course at the college provided much of the labour, rebuilding boardwalks and designing trails.

"It gave the students hands-on experience and put theory into practice," Durling said. Kim Wendt and Peter Brogden are the co-chairs of the committee and Durling credited them with "spearheading the project and providing many unnoticed hours of work." Committee members Brenda Chambers and Barry Withers have been tireless in their efforts to develop the park to its potential.

Wood for the park's facilities was donated by Peter Schleifenbaum of

Lawn bowlers elect new executive

The Minden Lawn Bowling Club held its annual fall meeting recently. The meeting was preceded by an afternoon of golf for some of the members, followed by a buffet dinner at Red Umbrella Inn. Golf prizes were awarded and lawn bowling accomplishments were acknowledged.

Foremost on the fall meeting agenda was the election of officers. Following are the results of the election:

President Howie Ryan, first vice-president Jim Hindle, second vice-president Muriel Harrington, secretary Eleanor Sewell and treasurer Cec Rowe. New directors include Marcell Rosseau, Cec Rowe, Harry Trevelde, Muriel Harrington and Marion Farr.

Another meeting will be held in the spring prior to the start of the 1999 season.

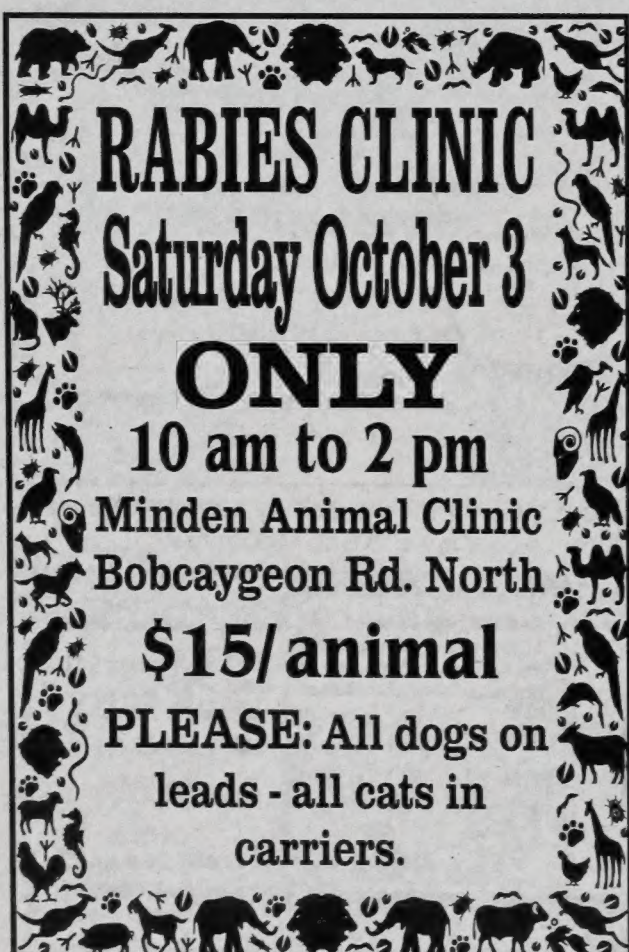

New lawn bowlers are always welcome to come out and join in the fun and socializing.

About 80 nature enthusiasts gathered at Snowdon Park September 12 to take part in a ceremony honouring the late Verne Graham with the dedication of a viewing platform.

Contract with Victoria still possible

gration and efficiency of services within the county; and a reduction of cost of management, administration and support services since these costs would be spread over a larger number of municipalities.

By contrast, Haliburton County would have its own, separate police force, which would no longer share costs with eight municipalities within Victoria County and parts of two other municipalities. Instead of paying half the cost of a staff sergeant and half of the cost of three or four sergeants, Haliburton would assume the full cost of the staff sergeant and four sergeants. In addition, there would be the full compliment of 24 constables, three clerical staff members and one caretaker.

The $250,000 increase is due to the higher cost of management, administration and support services, which would be spread over fewer municipalities.

Millar did his best impression of a federal politician on the hot seat at the county council meeting. When asked how many officers are currently working out of the Minden office of the OPP, Millar managed to dance around the topic without providing any definitive answer.

It was pointed out that even with the increase, Haliburton County, as a whole, would still have the lowest per-household cost for police services in the Central Region. The county's 1998 costs, based on estimates, is $110 per household. The quarter-million dollar increase represents a per-household increase of about $8.

Superintendent Wyatt pointed out that provincial standards, which have yet to be set, will have to be met. "Anything above that standard will be negotiable," he said.

Councillor Doug Holman lamented the fact that the OPP deal with Victoria would be "borne on the backs" of Haliburton County taxpayers.

"I'm confident that we can come to an agreement which is satisfactory," Wyatt told council.

Macklem said that once Victoria County has analyzed the OPP's costing figures, "we may have to look at combining the two counties for contracting police services together."

He said he doesn't know of anything that would prevent the two counties from negotiating a combined deal with the OPP.

"There's no structural reason why it couldn't happen," Macklem said.

CUPE makes appeal to non-teaching staff

Teachers were not the only group of employees affected by the amalgamation of school boards. This Thursday, the unionized non-teaching staff of the Trillium Lakelands District School Board will vote on who will represent them as a whole at the bargaining table.

According to Lynn Raback, president of the Canadian Union of Public Employees Local 997, the whole process is a bit bewildering. "This is very confusing to many people," said Raback. When the three school boards, Haliburton, Muskoka and Victoria were amalgamated, there were three separate bargaining agents for unionized teaching staff. They include CUPE, the Ontario Secondary School Teachers' Federation and the Service Employees' International Union. Within these three bargaining agents, there were eight separate bargaining units that represented everyone from custodial and maintenance workers, office

Jan Moffett honoured for her historical work in Coboconk

A Bexley Township resident will be receiving an award from the Ontario Heritage Foundation for her work in preserving the Coboconk train station. But according to Janet Ann Moffett, it was the community that jumped aboard to help save the historic building.

A permanent resident of Bexley for the past 18 years, Moffett realized the importance of the train station when the owner of Tri-County Building Supplies made the decision to tear down the building to expand his operations.

Moffett and a group of determined volunteers approached Bexley council and requested that they be allowed to move the building to a location where it could be restored to its former glory. Originally built in 1872, the railway brought people, materials and business opportunities to the Coboconk area. The train station was re-constructed in 1910 after the first one burned down in 1908. The station was the end of the line for the Toronto —

Nipissing line, spear-headed by George Lailaw, which was constructed to continue to northern Ontario.

"We felt that it was an important building for the town," said Moffett. "The railway brought economic development into the area and the station became a big part of that." The Bexley Architectural Conservation Advisory Committee, for which Moffett is chair, began fund-raising and building awareness of the importance of the effort, and within six months managed to raise the $35,000 that was needed to move the train station from the original site, up the hill to its present location. "We involved all of the service clubs, residents and cottagers. It was amazing how many people had connections to it. It was a great community effort," said Moffett. The Laidlaw Heritage Village Board of Management is now working hard to fix the station so that eventually Minden played host to public utilities commission and other municipal workers at the fall meeting of the Georgian Bay Waterworks Conference on September 16. Representatives from Aurora, Durham, Midland, Owen Sound, Muskoka and 30 other municipalities attended the conference at the Minden Community Centre to discuss "Technology for the New Millennium". Reeve Jean Anthon addressed the group and invited them to return.

Participants in the Minden Terry Fox fund raising event for cancer research break from the start line Sunday morning (September 20) in Minden. The annual event attracted close to 150 participants who rode, walked, ran or covered the distance on inline skates to raise over $6000. In Haliburton, the Sunday run attracted 45 participants raising $4500. The high school event held September 18 raised $5100. Among the participants in the Minden event were a number of cancer survivors, including, below from the left, Laurie Sisson, Judd Campbell, Nicki Armstrong and Vicki Cross.

and clerical staff, to teacher's assistants and professional support services personnel. This amalgam of unions and bargaining units is now in the process of being streamlined to create a unified presence across the school board.

The bargaining units have been reduced to three — one will cover custodial and maintenance workers, one will oversee office, clerical and technical and educational assistants while the other will represent the professional student support personnel. A vote will take place on October first to determine which bargaining agent or union will front each bargaining unit.

The vote will not be a simple procedure. The custodial/maintenance staff will choose from CUPE local 997, the OSSTF or the SEIU. The office staff and educational assistants will have to decide between CUPE local 997 or the OSSTF, while the professional student support staff will vote to determine whether OSSTF will represent them or become non-unionized. After the vote determines the successful unions, a new contract must be drafted to cover the three bargaining units.

Two thumbs up for the renovations at HHSS

by HHSS student reporter Andrea Hughes

Renovations. Yes, they are a big deal at HHSS right now. Maybe not to everyone, but at least to science students and the office staff.

Our school has, at the moment, a new science wing which includes a small greenhouse and new, better equipment, a new office area and new guidance office. A triple gymnasium is expected to be done in December.

When walking into the science wing, I trip up the stairs, maybe due to the shock of the light green paint or my own klutziness. I am not sure, however, one thing is definite, and that's that the new science wing is very green.

I asked Mr. Klose, a physics teacher, if he likes his new classroom compared to his old one. "The new science wing is much bigger, making in-class labs possible," and he said, adding, "we no longer have to take things out in the hall like we did before" He noted there are six computers attached right to the lab for students to work on when preparing their write-ups. As a result of this, the students are turning out a higher level of reports, and our science labs are now in the 90's and equal to those of other high schools in Ontario.

The new chairs seem to be the most popular feature for the students. They have special foam seats, compared to the previous, numbing wooden stools. Kris Jameson says "The chairs are very comfortable," Eileen Shim adds "The chairs are a lot better." Jennifer Ferguson concurs "There's a lot more room in the lab, and the chairs are better." General opinion: Full marks for the new chairs.

Mr. Klose invites the public to visit his physics lab to see what all the excitement is about. Just give him a call and ask when a good time would be. He's willing to take you on a tour....providing a good indication of how pleased he is with his new digs.

Spacious new science labs are part of the addition at HHSS.

Teachers Dave Mowat and Walter Tose unpacking in the new science wing.

Next, we move to the office, which is not green but a light blue-mauve. I speak with Mrs. Smith, one of our cheerful secretaries, and ask for her opinion on the renovations.

"There's a lot more space, and students aren't as crowded together when they come into the office," she says. It is also mentioned that the office is now more central than it previously was, and there's a lot more room to move about comfortably and get things done.

So, the majority of the people at our school seem to like some or all of the new parts of our school.

But then.... not everyone is a fan of the new renovations. Many people wish that classrooms other than the science rooms had been improved, and think that the new triple gyms, which will supposedly be finished sometime in December, seem a little silly and oversized, especially since our school has no extra-curricular sports at the moment.

Despite this, I think everyone will be able to appreciate a new cafeteria (coming in '99) for a variety of reasons: more space, shorter line-ups and goodbye to the orange and brown walls of our present cafeteria. For that, I am very thankful, and, did I hear a rumour, about pool tables coming soon?

Dragonfly art

Local artist Andy Hillo takes a break during the installation of his Dragonfly sculpture at the crossroads in Cardiff. The creature has a wingspan of about 16 feet and a length of about 14 feet. It is made of copper, and a high tech material that is guaranteed to last about 200 years. Eventually lights and landscaping will be added. Also on hand to help with the installation were: Roy Truchan, designer of the Visual Arts symbol, Paul Ellis, Glen Covert and Fran Clark.

Kinmount's Citizen of the YearDave Lougheed honoured

submitted by Lion Doug King

Dave Lougheed has been named Kinmount Citizen of the Year. The presentation of the award was made at the Community's Fall Fair by the Kinmount Lion's Club.

Since a young boy, Dave has cottaged with his parents Bob and Maggie Lougheed on Crystal Lake near Kinmount. He always vowed that one day he would leave the city and make Kinmount his home. In June 1989 he did just that. Along with his wife Holly, son David and daughter Dana, leaving behind his oldest daughter Denise, he moved to the family cottage, sold it and built what is now known as the "big blue house on the hill" on Galway Road.

The next few years in Kinmount were a bit rocky for the Lougheeds. The recession hit in 1990, wiping out the landscaping business which they had brought from Mississauga. Dave worked at "anything and everything" to be able to keep his family in Kinmount.

To help keep his mind busy and himself in shape, since he had just become a member of the Galway Fire Department, in 1991 he established the Kinmount Martial Arts Club. To date, the club has produced two black belts, coming up through the ranks from white to black. Dave is a second degree black belt in Hapkido and a brown belt in Tae Kwan Do.

When his son David began to show Kinmount's Citizen of the Year, Dave Lougheed, receives his award from Lions President Chris Weerdenberg and Lion Doug King.

an interest in playing hockey, the money for registration and equipment was just not there. Dave figured that there must be a lot more kids in the same situation, kids that just wanted to play hockey, but the funds and opportunity were not available.

So in 1993, with the help of his wife Holly and a lot of community support, they started their own minor house league which is known at the Kinmount Knights. With this being their fifth year in operation, the Knights have managed to attract players from Bobcaygeon to Haliburton and pride themselves on being a fun league.

When asked about how he felt about being presented with the award of Citizen of the Year, Dave just shrugs his shoulders and says, "It is quite an honour and I believe that one is only as good as the community he comes from. When you live in a small community such as Kinmount, I think it is important to become involved and try to make a difference." Dave is also quick to point out that all he had were the ideas and if not for the total community support he received from organizations such as the Kinmount Legion Branch 441, of which he is a member, the Kinmount Lion's Club, the Kinmount Fair Board and the countless local volunteers and merchants, these ideas would have never materialized.

Lougheed received the award from Lions club president Chris Weerdenberg and Lion Doug King. Nominations for the award are provided by the community. The public is invited to put forth names of potential recipients for next year's honour.

The citizen of the year is presented with a plaque. As well, a donation of $100 is made to a local charity of his choice in his name. The permanent Citizen of the Year plaque will be on display at the Railway Station in Kinmount.

636 honours and awards

Bonjour.

As of writing, the fall weather is very evident. We cannot complain for we were blessed with a wonderful summer and fall. So far. Here's hoping the forecasts of a long heavy winter are wrong.

On our sick list this time are Warren Shaddock who is at home, Ed Pettinger who is at Ross Memorial Hospital and Marg (Maggie) Harrison who is in Room 420 at Civic Hospital in Peterborough.

As usual, our branch has been very busy and because I've been AWOL I couldn't report everything that was pertinent. Last Saturday we celebrated Honours and Awards Night. What a huge success! It was a pleasant shock to learn we have three guys who are active and have 50 years of service each. These resilient men are Reg Munns, Phil Graham and Roy Windover. Another guy whom we all know is Ken Martin of Kushog Lake Marina Martin Brothers fame, with 55 years.

The participants all enjoyed a lovely buffet dinner and social hour before the presentations at 7:30 p.m. Over 90 people were recipients.

This morning, (September 23), is the first day of fall -- many degrees of frost. Oh well! It's on its way.

Make sure you pick up your copy of the "Blue Beret". It is published and put together by the very capable Jack and Sharon Sykes and Shirley Kirk. They have chosen to set up a calendar of events for the coming months. These are done with large squares so you can pencil in activities. This is a very handy and welcome addition.

Don't forget all of our euchre, meat draw and trivia nite activities. Each Monday we offer art classes with John Lennard.

Speaking of John, I hope everyone has had a chance to view his beautiful mural appearing on the south side of The Times building. The paintings' depth and the stories it tells are spectacular! Don't miss it.

A Texas Oilman settled back for his annual dental check-up. After completing a thorough examination the dentist had good news. "Henry, your teeth are in great shape. There isn't a thing we need to do to them."

"Drill anyway Doc," The Texan insisted. "I feel lucky today."

After telling the doctor he thought he was becoming impotent, the depressed old man listened as the physician patiently explained that as the body ages certain bodily functions slow down. "It's perfectly normal to suffer a decrease in sexual desire. You shouldn't worry or become upset about it. Just relax and things will improve. Now exactly when did you begin to notice this problem?" the doctor asked.

"Three times last night," The old fellow replied. "And again this morning."

Then one day, desperate and broken, I cried out: "Jesus! Jesus!" I called his name. "Please come into my life and forgive me my sins." And he heard me! It was as though he reached down and took me to himself. That day I experienced the truth of Romans 10:13: "Whoever calls upon the name of the Lord shall be saved."

Repent to Jesus, today!

Local search and rescue team assist in Bracebridge

The Haliburton County Search and Rescue Support Team assisted in the search for a missing woman near Bracebridge on September 16 and 17.

Ten members of the Haliburton Team worked in the Prospect Lake area near Bracebridge where they assisted the Bracebridge OPP and the Central Region Emergency Response unit in the search for 37 year-old Nancy MacKinnon. MacKinnon had been reported missing at 5:00 p.m. on September 16 and the search was initiated by 7:30. The missing woman was discovered in the bush, one half kilometre south of her Prospect Lake residence on September 17 around 11:30 a.m. MacKinnon was transported to South Muskoka Memorial Hospital, by ambulance, where she was listed in fair condition.

President's report

And here is this month's comment by our president Francine Newton:

By the time you read this, Legion week will have come and gone. Branch 636 kicked it off with the Branch and Ladies Auxiliary hosting an Honours and Awards dinner and presentation. Several members received their five, 10, 15 and 20 years pins. Comrades Phil Graham, Reg Munns and Roy Windover, were eligible for 50 years pins. We also had a member with 55 years, Comrade Ken Martin.

There was also a life member pin and badge presented to Comrade Dave McAdam. Congratulations to all of you.

On September 20, our cemetery service was led by the Uxbridge Pipe and Drum Band. It was well attended and your branch was packed for lunch and we were also treated to a few numbers played by the band.

Our "Coffee Break for Alzheimer's" was held on September 24. The public was also invited to come and view our legion. Later that afternoon our new flagpole was dedicated and the flag was raised. Our thanks to Comrade Maurice Winterflood for donating it.

Darts have started Friday evenings and since last week a ladies dart league was started.

My thanks to the ladies who helped prepare the food, for all of our events last week, especially following our decoration day.

Just a quick reminder that our next branch meeting will be held Wednesday, October 7 at 7:30 p.m. Also every Wednesday we have our meat draws at noon.

Until next time, keep well and see you at your branch.

Our profile guy didn't make it for this publication but guarantees he'll make it for next month. So that's it for now, and until next time, thanks a lot.

submitted by Ruth Still Haliburton County Elder Abuse Committee has functioned for a year now. Becoming established and forming an executive have been the simple part. Acquiring financial backing (still not in effect), establishing back-up and resource facilities for someone who needs to be rescued from an abusive situation is not as easy.

We had hoped to use the 24 hour a day hot line established by the Women's Emergency House. That organization has fallen on financial hard times and is endeavouring to re-establish itself. This leaves the

TSW water levels report

On Monday September 21, the Haliburton reserve lakes stood at 41.7 per cent of the usual full levels on average. This was down only 1.5 per cent in a week, but still about 8.5 per cent lower than normal and three per cent lower than 1997.

The Kawarthas are holding near the full levels for navigation. For this reason, flows from the tributaries (the reserve lakes) have been near minimum all week. Flow leaving the Kawarthas along the Otonabee was also held near minimum to preserve the water there.

Lake Simcoe-Couchiching was back to the same level on Tuesday September 22 as one week earlier. The rain which brought it up last Wednesday, by about three centimetres, has all been lost again, mostly to evaporation. Its outflow over this time has been lower than average by about 12 per cent.

This report was issued by Trent Severn Waterway staff on September 22, 1998.

H.C.E.A.C. with the role of educator, identifying the various forms of elder abuse, the personal recognition of any concern for their victimization and that sources for help are available.

The easiest to victimize are the loners, the ones with few or no social contacts, who don't seek outside help. Neighbours, your church, a friend, or caring acquaintance can all be sources for aid.

Telemarketing, TV scams, mail schemes or "get rich quick" contractors are only too common. If a thing seems too good to be true, it probably is. The police would like to be informed at once of your suspicions so they can investigate and halt any fraudulent scheme before it gets started and does real financial harm to some senior.

PhoneBusters is the police service specifically intended to cope with such scams. Detective Staff Sergeant Barry Elliott who heads up this North Bay service will be guest speaker at a meeting on Tuesday, October 20 from 10:00 to 11:30 a.m. held at the Royal Canadian Legion in Haliburton.

The meeting is open to all, especially to seniors. Come ask questions and get your information from the most competent authority there is. The presentation is free and refreshments will be served.

ACTION!

The Minden Wild Water Preserve became a movie set several weeks ago as a crew filmed a dramatic rescue sequence. The program is called Real Kids--Real Adventures and is being produced for the Discovery America Network. The series depicts stories of heroism by youths. This sequence being shot at the park was meant to portray the rescue of a kayaker who was trapped in the icy waters of a river near Calgary. The camera crew in the foreground captures a shot as two actors float down the rapids clinging to an overturned kayak. A sound technician in the upper right holds a boom mike over the kayakers in distress.

NOTICE TO THE RATEPAYERS OF THE CORPORATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF SOMERVILLE

Burnt River Flooding in April, 1991

As many of you may know, several cottage owners of the Burnt River community have been involved in litigation with the Trent-Severn Waterway and the Township of Somerville as a result of the flooding of the Burnt River in April 1991.

Through the co-operative efforts of the federal government, the Township of Somerville and the individual ratepayers involved in this litigation, information and details were exchanged regarding the operation, management and responsibilities of all levels of government with respect to the Trent-Severn Waterway and the Burnt River in particular.

This open exchange of information during the litigation has resulted in a consensus between all parties that the April 1991 flood along the Burnt River was caused solely and entirely by environmental and atmospheric conditions. These included a rapid spring thaw and a series of intense rainfall events centred over the lower Burnt River area. It is clear that when these natural elements and events combined the flooding ensued with the unfortunate consequence of property damage.

It has become equally clear that flood damage would have been far more disastrous but for the existing operation and management schemes adopted by the Trent-Severn Waterway and the emergency response provided by the Township of Somerville. The federal government and the Township of Somerville acted reasonably and in an appropriate manner under the circumstances and are not faulted in any way for the flood or resulting flood damage.

Everyone directly or indirectly affected by the April 1991 flood recognizes the importance of the continued operation of the Trent-Severn Waterway to the economic well-being of this community. While a number of ratepayers unfortunately suffered property damage and loss as a result of the April 1991 flood, those losses cannot be attributed in any way to any act or omission by the Trent-Severn Waterway or the Township of Somerville. All reasonable and appropriate steps were taken by the various levels of government, including the federal government and the Township of Somerville, to mitigate against the effects of the flood.

The dialogue between the parties to this litigation has made the following conclusion abundantly clear to every party's satisfaction that the April 1991 flood was the result of an unfortunate combination of natural causes and was in no way attributable to human error.

Reaping the garden's bounty

That's it. Summer is officially over and fall has definitely arrived. Bet a lot of you are busy harvesting your gardens before the frost gets it. We are too. As we write this column today, our veggie gardens are being pulled apart. You should be here to see the harvest. Quite a few carrots, some peppers and lots and lots of green tomatoes. Any ideas out there?

We have also had to temporarily move the roses from our front entrance to protect them. The next phase of our adventure here is due to begin. We will tell you more next week. Anyway it's time to let you know what has been happening here during the last few days.

Our tea party on the seventeenth was hosted by the Kinmount UCW and what a lovely tea party it was. The village of Kinmount has five groups that visit us once a year. We're sure that some of the ladies must belong to more than one group. Our sincere thanks to all of them. We really enjoy having you with us. That evening we welcomed Barbara back for "quiet time". About ten of us gathered together and thoroughly enjoyed hearing all about her recent holiday in the Maritimes.

The following day was a busy one for many of us. It was the day set aside for our volunteer appreciation barbeque. So many people deserve our thanks for such a successful time. We're sure to miss somebody and that simply can't happen so we will just send many, many thanks to all involved. It was wonderful to see so many people attend and we so enjoyed the music of Don Wright and Vivien Heatherington. Our congratulations to all you volunteers. The Times and the Haliburton Echo included a great write-up for us with all the details. We're sure you read them. Our thanks to our local papers for their coverage.

We are pleased to announce that Winnie Barnum is back with us after her stay in the hospital. Winnie once wrote this column for many years and is still involved as one of our roving reporters. How about a card from you readers to help cheer her up. Winnie would sure appreciate it.

Another quiet weekend. Things are definitely slowing down with the changing of the seasons. Monday afternoon we thoroughly enjoyed the music of the Allsaw Pentecostal Choir. Beatrice Britain's granddaughter is one of the members and she had a chance to say hello. Nina Prentice also enjoyed a visit from her daughter and granddaughter from the Dwight area.

Father Fellion was here for Tuesday chapel assisted by his volunteers. Later that day Muriel Harrison enjoyed a visit from some old friends. They had a great time catching up on all the news. The following afternoon the Hyland Rover whisked some us away on a country drive. What wonderful colours out there. The leaves are certainly changing fast aren't they?

The weather was certainly great. Lovely and sunny which made the colours all the more vibrant. Before we reached home we stopped off for some ice cream at Kerry's Dairy here in Minden. You know us and our ice-cream.

That evening the Norland Hillbilly's popped in for a quick hello and ended up staying to entertain us in the lounge. Our thanks to them and the nursing staff for helping out with this impromptu event.

Just about out of news once again. Today our tea party is scheduled with another group from Kinmount. We will have to find out who they are and we'll let you know next week.

We now have a female canary named Patti thanks to Janet.

Upcoming birthdays: Hazel Clark, September 28; Winnifred Rosebush October 4; Judy Stevenson October 4; and Alice Prentice October 5. A happy birthday to you all.

See you all again next week. In the meantime, keep smiling!

What a frost that was!! It had to happen, but it is still such a shock each year when it finally does. The outside thermometer read 0 C. Which was also a shock!! The sun is now shining brilliantly, showing off the beginning of the fall colours, so all is right with the world. All this happening on my 60th birthday!! I feel blessed. I am blessed. Over the weekend, those near and dear to me gathered to celebrate with me at a party put on by two of my daughters. I was glowing in the circle of loving friends and family. I wonder what this decade will bring? The last decade brought me to Minden!!

Speaking of family, a man emailed The Times from Chilliwack B.C. last week in response to the mention I made to my Dad's and perhaps Dave Brown's deaths and the Camp Comak connection. Writing about the seasons, the "ongoingness" of life and then in the next breath writing about all the new technology we are dealing with in our lives!! Life is so full!! He was a camper at Comak in the sixties and is interested in getting a camp song book. I'll see what I can do!!

The Agnes Jamieson Gallery has a new Administrator in the person of Dianne Graham. Dianne comes with many skills and talents combined with a love and a positive feeling for our area. She is thrilled to be working here after leaving a big job in Toronto. Not to put pressure on her, but we expect big things from Dianne, as much as the budget will allow!! After only one day on the job, Dianne asked that I mention that the artist, Steve Cromar, on October 3, in the afternoon, will set up his easel in the back room of the gallery, so that everyone who drops in can see an artist at work. Another great event to see on the Studio Tour that weekend. On display now at the gallery, are examples of the work of the artists on this year's tour. The Agnes Jamieson Gallery is also considering the feasibility of offering a children's art program. What a great idea!! Welcome Dianne to your new position in our community and here's wishing you good luck and fun!!

The Ingoldsby United Church is putting on a Soup and Sandwich Lunch on October 3 and 4 from 12 noon until 4:00 p.m. There will also be a Harvest Table where you can purchase preserves and gifts. It sounds like a great place to take a break while on the Studio Tour. It is great that organizations such as the Ingoldsby Church, participate in this way to make the tour a memorable weekend for all.

A reminder of the Newsflab- Video Night- Fundraiser for The Women's Emergency House tomorrow night, September 29 at 7:30 p.m., at Bonnie View Inn. The evening is in support of keeping the the Women's Emergency House open and for strengthening our community. See you there!!

Here's hoping for good weather for next weekend and the wish to everyone to enjoy seeing all the local talent on display!!

A reminder from Pastor Dan Millard of the Kinmount Baptist Church that the Needful Things Clothing Store is open every Tuesday from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. The store is located in the former Kinmount School now the Kinmount Baptist Church, on Highway 503 west. The store has men's ladies' and children's clothing and its just $1 per green garbage bag.

SCORINGNEWS

At the Minden Legion on September 22, playing Senior's Bid Euchre, Pat Roussel, Ruth Kellett, Ida Young and Marcel Roussel were the high scorers. Ester Lee had the hidden score. There were two moonshots won by Gala Stamp and Marcel Roussel.

On the September 21, at Club 35, Wally Harpur won the 50/50 draw. Marion Farr took lone hands. The high scores were won by Helen Windsor and, again, Wally Harpur. Lows were taken by Jean Dutka and Marianne Stepanek. Ken Wallace, who doesn't think he has ever won it before, took baloney!!

Scores again from Gelert and Lochlin!! First week, Gelert. Enough people turned out for seven tables on the first night!! Mildred St. Thomas took woman's high and Mervin Gilbert for the men. The lows were Kit Schroder and Don Curry. Ross Schroder took both lone hands and the 50/50 draw. Welcome back. I guess this means summer is over!!

Thursday, September 17 was the Euchre day at the Minden Legion. Most lone hands were won by Sandy Kieckhoefer and Maggie Magee. High scores went to Margaret Fletcher and Al Cooper. Low scores were taken by Judy Kent and Marcel Roussel. Mary Wilson's name is in there too but I can't make out why!!---sorry!! Carol Hill, Vi Edgson, Milton Fletcher and Elaine Blakey won "other" prizes.

The Friendship Club at St. Paul's had a great afternoon of cards last Monday. Katie carried on in spite of the weekend she had celebrating the wedding of her grandson, Joel to Dawn, nee, Gartshore!! It was a lovely wedding!! Pearl Cowan took lone hands. Irene Fuhr was high woman and Norm Lee high man. Low was Marg Coulter and Jeanne Keliele won the 50/50 draw. There will be no Euchre at St. Paul's on Thanksgiving Monday. Please Note!!

A catch-up for Bid Euchre at Club 35, played on September 11. High women were Mary Pearson, 278; Jeanne Penick, 266; Kate Cline, 253. High men, Harold Cox, 333; Bob McConnell, 271; Al Whyman, 238. Hidden score, Bud Pipher, 216. Two moonshots, Mary Pipher and Harold Cox. That night the group celebrated two fiftieth wedding anniversaries and one fifty-ninth!!

Then on September 18 the following got the high scores: Women, Gala Stamp, 337; Jeanne Penick, 276; Marianne Stepanek, 269; Men, Bud Pipher, 275; Norm Lee, 257; Tom Pearson, 252; Hidden score, Milton Fletcher, 179. Three moonshots, Milton Fletcher, Gala Stamp and Harold Cox.

This group will play until Thanksgiving and have a holiday until next spring.

Then over at Stanhope, Bid Euchre was played on September 23. Seven moonshots were won on that evening. Belle Waller had a score of 263; Betty Harper, 270; Jeanne Penick, 271; Bev Swick, 280; Frank Campagnolo, 285 and top score, Marion Farr, 299.

Finally, but certainly not least are the Bridge scores of the week. First, over at Echo Hills, on September 17, the duplicate players had these winners: In the North/South position, Betty and Ernie Keller were first and Muriel McIntosh and Russ Fair were second. In East/West, Vera Carnochan with Mayme Douglas were first and Mildred Davidson with Tom Hunter were second.

At Stanhope on September 22, Pearl Foster and Vange Croucher bid and made the only small slam of the day, playing contract bridge. Vange Croucher also got honourable mention that day. In third place was Fred Heald with 5600; second, Betty Schlotter with 5840; first, Len McNeice with 6440. It appears that Betty does so much better in the scoring department when she is not playing with her husband!! In the same vein, Len McNeice is much better off when not playing with our trusted reporter, Ross Fletcher. What a group they all are. They seem to have so much fun up there on Tuesday afternoons!!

That's it for "scoring" this week. See you here next week !!

CARDS OF THANKS

The Knitter's Group, affiliated with the Guild, would like to express our sincere thanks to Margaret and George Bull for hosting the barbecue on September 8th for about 80 knitters and friends. The 50-50 draw of $52.50 was won by Helen Campbell. Second prize was a bottle of wine donated by Teddy Stuckless. Third prize was some Honeyman's beef patties. The amount of $651.83 was raised and is to be donated to the Teleradiology Unit at the Haliburton Hospital. We would also like to extend our sincere thanks to Honeyman's Beef Purveyors of Toronto, whose donation of all of the beef patties for the barbecue made this possible. To everyone who gave a helping hand, Thank You.

THANK YOU to everyone who attended our Jack and Jill on September 12th. We hope you enjoyed yourselves as much as we did! Thanks to all who bought tickets, sold tickets and sent their best wishes. It was a wonderful evening! A special thanks to our family and friends who obviously put a great deal of effort into the party. Your love and support has been incredible. Thanks again!

Jack and Sandi.

Put The Word Into Action Ministries Inc., would like to take this opportunity to thank Nora Snyder for her services as advisor and vice-president of this ministry over the past year. She has come to be a trustworthy friend and we will miss her on the board. We would also like to welcome Marion Regan as the new vice-president. She has been a faithful supporter and has a heart to help the needy.

The Family of the later Peter Ernest Hone wish to express their sincere thanks and appreciation to Gordon A. Monk Funeral Home, the Dollo Family, Donald J. Finn and Lois Adamson and the Legion ladies for the magnificent lunch after the services. Special thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Ron Welch who came a great distance to offer comfort and support. To all our many friends, sincere appreciation for your many kindnesses and compassion. Your support is much appreciated.

I would like to thank all our friends on Davis Lake and in Kinmount for your tremendous support during George's battle and after his passing. The many flowers and acts of kindness have been overwhelming. It does help knowing you are always there, whether it be with a prayer, a shoulder or a cord of wood. Your caring and friendship have made out cottage our home.

Pat Restivo & Family.

CARDS OF THANKS

THANK YOU - There are so many of you to thank, first, Dr. Judy Smith, the doctors and nurses at our own little hospital in Minden, Dr. Watson, nurses and staff at Ross Memorial. Then to my family, friends and neighbours, thanks for all the visits, (especially while I was in Lindsay!), cards, flowers, phone calls, prayers and for keeping my gang fed while I was away - that is no little job. To my Mom, always there when we need you - thanks. To my husband Tom and family, Jack, Sandi & Morgan, Tom Jr., Tony and Andrea, Terry and Shannon, you are great and I love you. Last, but not least, thanks to everyone for helping my Mom prepare for Jack and Sandi's shower and to all who made it a special evening. Thanks again for everything.

Marg Prentice.

THANK YOU

Martin and I would like to thank our family and friends for our surprise 25th Wedding Anniversary party and a week's vacation in Florida. We don't know how you kept it quiet for the last six months. But you did. It was definitely a surprise and we had a wonderful time. Special thanks to our employers (you sneaky people), you're the best. We thank Jim and Geraldine Parsons for the use of their condo, it was beautiful. A heartfelt thank you goes to Jenn. The time and energy you put into this, we'll probably never know. You're one in a million. Last, but not least, our sons, Andy and Scott, our hearts swell with pride at the thoughtfulness you too have shown us. Our love forever.

Martin & Colleen Bacon.

IN MEMORIAM

ROBINSON: In memory of a beloved Mother and Grandmother, Florence Robinson, who passed away October 2, 1997.

It's been a sad lonely year Mom, Since you left us all behind, I walked in the door that morning

Having no idea what I'd find, God had it in His plan It would be me to be first there, Although that dreadful day to me

It just did not seem fair.

You suffered long and hard Mom But now you're gone to be with Dad

Family and friends miss you deeply

For the love you always had, We have such precious beautiful memories

Of days to be no more, And we'll talk about them forever

When we meet on that distant shore.

Forever remembered and loved by Janice, Jack, Doug, Karen, Brad, Maggie, Donna and Phillip.
